

Job Title: Education Project Officer	Reports to: Education Senior Project Officer
Department: Education Program	Salary Grade: 7

Background

The CRS Egypt country program began in 1956 at the invitation of the Egyptian president Nasser by providing relief assistance to the victims of the Suez War. Over the following few decades, CRS Egypt moved from large- scale food relief to long-term poverty alleviation and development programs. CRS Egypt works in a wide variety of areas within the development field.

Currently, CRS Egypt programs in education, livelihoods, social cohesion, and emergency response. CRS focuses on safeguarding and on working with local partners across its portfolio. Projects under these programs range from the provision of technical assistance and capacity building to partners, promoting gender transformative behaviors and cohesion and tolerance across groups, educational grants for refugees and assistance to refugee community schools, promoting protection and safeguarding of children, and technical support, start-up funds, and vocational training for refugee and vulnerable Egyptian entrepreneurs.

Job Summary:

The Education Program supports over 70,000 refugee and asylum seeker children with access to basic and higher education opportunities through a financial assistance program. It also improves the quality of education received by students through a variety of complementary educational programs and initiatives to enhance the learning outcomes of students. These two components of the program require a substantial full-time staff as well as consultants who assist in project implementation periodically throughout the year.

The Education Project Officer will support the Higher Education (DAFI) Project whose goal is that refugee and asylum seeker scholars, aged 18-28 years, acquire qualifications, skills, and networking needed in tertiary education to succeed. As a member of the DAFI project team, you will monitor and report on all project activities in support of Catholic Relief Services' (CRS) work serving the poor and vulnerable. Your thorough and service-oriented approach will ensure that the DAFI project consistently applies best practices and constantly works towards improving the impact of its benefits to those we serve. Specifically, the Education Project Officer will lead activities for specific interventions, including the implementation of case management services; education enrollment and financial assistance; capacity building programs to DAFI scholars; students' complementary scholarship opportunities and activities.

- Support the coordination and implementation of all project activities as outlined in the detailed implementation plan and in line with CRS's program quality principles and standards, donor requirements, and best practices.
- Monitor and report any challenges and/or gaps to inform adjustments to activity plans and implementation schedules. Lead project teams, partners (if applicable), other stakeholders, and donors in efforts to improve processes.
- Support accountability through coordinating project evaluation activities with project team members, partners (if applicable), and other stakeholders. Collect and analyze project data based on specified mechanisms and tools. Collaborate with project team and local partner(s) (if applicable) to prepare reports as per reporting schedule.
- Collect information on staff capacity and technical assistance needs of partners (if applicable) and other stakeholders, and monitor capacity building and technical support activities to ensure effective impact.

- Complete project documentation for assigned activities. Assist with identifying information for case studies and reports on promising practices.
- Effectively manage talent and supervise team. Manage team dynamics and staff well-being. Provide coaching, strategically tailored individual development plans, contribute to the recruitment process of project staff, and complete performance management for direct reports.
- Support compliance with agency and donor MEAL requirements. Provide input to MEAL system design and review discussions.
- Contribute to simple analyses and reflective discussions on ongoing monitoring data. Contribute initial findings and implementation-based insights to project discussions.
- Other related duties, as assigned

Basic Qualifications:
